

JUNE 2017 NEWSLETTER

The annual meeting and dinner on June 3 was both entertaining and businesslike. As usual, the club owes a great debt of gratitude to a handful of people for making this event seem as seamless as it does. First, Daniel Champion, for providing an absolutely gorgeous (and covered) venue. Second, Kim Baird, Woody's wife. She worked tirelessly both behind and on the scene to make this event appear easy. All the other volunteers – Cliff Dykes, Steve Harris, Vance Williamson, Nora Courtney – and all those I have missed naming, that helped set up, break down, clean up, cook, sell tickets, etc., this event does not happen without you. Our club does not exist without volunteers. Thanks to each and every person that bought one of the raffle tickets and to The Sure Shot for once again being a club sponsor. Congratulations to the raffle winner, Blake Owen!

The existing club officers were returned to office for another term with no opposition. They are Woody Baird, president; Mike Goss, vice president; Eb Spink, treasurer; and Tim Courtney remains as secretary. Along with their re-election, the plans for immediate future development of and at the club were also approved. This includes but is not limited to removal of the existing sheds at the rifle and pistol ranges, enlarging the existing concrete pads, removing the wooden tables on the pistol range, replacing the sheds with new, larger covers. All very optimistic and ambitious, but doable, especially if we can find someone who wants to do some concrete work. Know anyone??

The inaugural Steel Challenge Match for our club took place Sunday, June 4. There were a total of 14 shooters. For a first match, this looks promising! I sincerely hope this is a direction that we continue to grow in. Next Sunday, June 11, at 2PM is the next Bowling Pin Match, our old, tried and true standby. Vince Law put on some fancy moves last month. I think he's been watching too many Bruce Lee videos...Due to the Father's Day Holiday, we will not shoot Golf Balls until June 25 at 4PM. I think this is all correct – except for maybe the Bruce Lee stuff.

We have an anomaly as President. We have elected someone who is actually trying his best to fulfill his campaign promises. In spite of the best (worst?) efforts of the Democratic Party, a very bitter “I should have been in the White House!” Hillary, a really pissed off Kenyan as he sees what he perceived as his legacy systematically dismantled, and all their little minions, he perseveres. With the acumen and foresight of a businessman, not a politician, he is not afraid to hire people, fire people, and tell someone when they are not doing their job. He knows, WE know, that it is an absolute necessity to secure our borders, or we, like Great Britain, Germany, and the remainder of Europe, will pay a heavy price. Political correctness needs to become an archaic term or we will become an archaic country.

“The fact that one army was fighting for union and the other for disunion is a political expression. The actual fact on the battlefield, in the face of cannon and musket, was that Federal troops came as invaders, and the Southern troops stood as defenders of their homes, and further than this we need not go.”
